

Training Week Announcement

NEW MEXICO DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY & EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

December 2 – 6, 2019, 0800-1600 Daily

OFFERED BY: New Mexico DHSEM

LOCATION: Onate Complex - 13 Bataan Blvd Santa Fe, NM

FEATURED TRAININGS:

Cybersecurity Awareness for Officials & Senior Management – 4 hours

Surviving an Active threat: Run, Hide, Fight – 8 Hours

Stop the Bleed - 4 hours

State Emergency Operations Center Support Function Orientation – 1-2 hours.

Emergency Management Assistance Compact (EMAC) Introduction – 1-2 hours

HAM Radio Technicians Training – 14 Hours

Recovery from Disaster: Local Community Role – 17 hours

Other courses, sessions and topics, will be added as we gather input from leadership. The instruction includes training from Subject Matter Experts, Qualified instructors and National Training Consortium partners.

Training goal: Provide the current, applicable topics and provide opportunities for state partners.

Target audience: State, Local, and Tribal personnel, and private non-profit entities

There is no cost for registered participants and course materials are provided.

Registration: To register go to <http://preparingnewmexico.com/> Courses will be scheduled and posted on the website and available for registration. Registration is open to any interested individuals on the website for training week by creating your account in the in preparingnewmexico.org.

Notification of Acceptance: A Notice of Acceptance and additional information on the course will be sent to applicants two weeks prior to the course start date.

For additional information contact:

Jerome Macdonald - DHSEM (505) 476-0871, jeromep.macdonald@state.nm.us

Felecia Schreier - DHSEM (505) 476-9633, Felecia.schreier@state.nm.us